Court Notes.

The grand jury at its session last week returned seventeen indictments. Six of these indictments were against John S. Adair, former cashier of the Two States Bank, of Stephensport, for embezzlement and false entries upon the bank's books; five were against the Railroad Co. for failure to block the frogs of its switch; two were for breach of the peace; one for unlawfully cutting another; and two for unlawful intimacy with females under sixteen years of age.

Court adjourned Saturday morning after a busy week with Judge T. F. Birkhead, of Owensboro, presiding. His ability, activity and social qualities are markedly prominent.

The L. H. & St. L. R'y. was fined $100 for failing to keep in proper condition their public privy at Hardinsburg. It was also fined $100 for failing to provide a suitable waiting room at Irvington.

Harrison Fisher, colored, was fined $50 for shooting another.

Abe Landers was fined $30 for cutting another.

Sam Brown, colored, was fined $50 and ten days in jail for violating the local option law; on another indictment he was fined $60.

The third week of the session began yesterday after an adjournment since Saturday. Judge Sandidge, of Russellville, is sitting this week.

Dr. Bush Has An Experience

J. C. Bush, of Cannelton, went to Louisville and bought an automobile Monday. He attempted to bring it home by land, but failed in the effort. The machine ran alright until after it passed West Point and was making the long climb up Muldraugh's hill when the engine broke down. Bush bought a ticket home over the Henderson Route, considering that the safer way to travel, and sent the machine back by the Chilfionier, or whatever you call it. A good deal of the motoring enthusiasm was knocked out of the Canneltonian when he was footing the bill for towing the broken machine into West Point.—Clarion.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Will Be Held Friday Evening In The Methodist Church--Excellent Program Arranged--
The Rev. Mr. Crafton To Address Graduates

EIGHT SWEET GIRL GRADUATES

The commencement exercises of the Cloverport High School will be given Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the Methodist church.

Prof. Tanner and the members of the High School have been planning and working for the excellence of Friday evening's program for several months. They studied night and day for weeks preparing a play to meet the expense of the occasion, and since "The Kentucky Belle" made a hit, they have been turning over the dollars and trying with all their might to make the commencement of 1911 one of credit and inspiration to The Cloverport High School and to Cloverport.

Miss Claudia Watson Pate will deliver the salutatory address and Miss Lenora Elizabeth McGavock is the valedictorian of the class. Besides the music one of the original features of the program will be a poem to the graduates written by Miss Audrey Virginia Perkins. The Rev. Mr. C. E. Crafton, of Winchester, will address the graduates who are: Misses Eloise Witt Nolte, Claudia Watson Pate, Lenora Elizabeth McGavock, Audrey Virginia Perkins, Jeanette Whortney Burn, Anna Belle Kramer, and Martha Miller.

PROF. CHARLEY A. TANNER.

Prof. Charley A. Tanner is closing the second successful year as Principal of the Cloverport High School. His work in the school and churches and his citizenship have been an especial benefit to the town.

Cloverport appreciates him, not him alone but Mrs. Tanner too. The school as well as other friends, have learned to know her as well as Prof. Tanner, because in all the undertakings of the classes, she has given a sympathetic interest to them. Prof. Tanner is president of the Kentucky Teacher's Reading Circle and takes an active part in other educational affairs of the state.

SCHOOL PLAY.

Brilliant Success at Hardinsburg
--Proceeds Go to Purchase a Piano--William Ditto Leading Man.

Hardinsburg, Ky., May 22, (Special) —The plays given at the City Hall Friday night were a brilliant success. William Ditto, as leading character in "Uncle Dick's Mistake," was ably supported by Misses Annie Lewis Whitworth and Lillian Miller, and Mr. Robert Curtis and Master Alie D. Beard. The play produced roars of laughter, and was unanimously considered one of the best things ever given at the City Hall.

"The Sweet Family," headed by Miss Lillian Miller, an ideal "Ma Sweet," exhibited the various musical, poetical, dramatic and other entertaining talents of the seven sweet sisters. Misses Clara Whitworth, Eliza Taylor, Judith Beard, Reba Shepard, Eliza Miller, Ruth Kincheloe and Ruth Chambliss were charming entertainers in burlesque. Their parts were happily done. The students, Prof. Maxey and Mrs. Read, who conducted the rehearsals, are complimented upon every hand. The proceeds, $45.25, will go toward the purchase of a piano.

ALF. WYTTENBACH KILLED BY TRAIN.

Must Have Committed Suicide--
Leaves a Note to Son--Over $500 in Gold Found in His Clothes.

BEGGED SUPPER AT HOLT.

Stephensport, May 22.—Though he stated last night he was walking from Evansville to Louisville because he was too poor to pay his transportation and begged his supper, Alford Wyttenbach, who was killed near here by an L. H. & St. L. train shortly after 11 o'clock this morning, had $540 in gold and 76 cents in small change in his clothes. So far as can be learned Wyttenbach was a Government pensioner. Last night he slept in a stable.

He was attempting to cross the Stillwell trestle when hit by the train. In his pockets beside the money were found pension papers and a note asking that his body be turned over to his son, Russell Wyttenbach, at Evansville. Wyttenbach is said to have been well connected, and his death here caused something of a sensation, though there were many that thought that the death was a plain case of suicide because of the note relative to the disposition of his body.

Wyttenbach was 76 years old.

Music, flowers, presents, addresses, eloquence, beauty, smiles, congratulations, happy hearts, diplomas, and high resolves for lives of honored, usefulness, were in evidence at the city hall Monday night, the occasion being the graduating exercises of the Breckinridge public schools.

The address to the class was made by Dr. Mather, of Marion, beloved pastor in Hardinsburg for two years. In happy mood he pictured life in earnest and showed that sacrifice and giving and essential parts. "Flowery beds of ease and rose strewn paths" are pretty as poetry, but activity and burial of self are practical essentials.

General David R. Murray, of Indianapolis, one of our most distinguished ex-residents in presenting the diplomas took of occasion to refer in eloquent terms of the past, in its inexorableness; the limitlessness of the future, and the infinitesimal now, upon which the future with its success of failure depends. His address was poetry in action, an inspirational lift to higher things.

Diplomas were presented to the following young people who have completed the common school course and are now ready to enter High School: Thos. J. Whitfield, Eloise Hook, Eliza Taylor, Clara Belle DeHaven, Earl Thomas, Willard Driskell, Nathaniel Shelman, Franklin Beard, Alertyl Rea Gray, Emma Gray, Gilbert Macey, Sarah Dean Moorman, Margaret Peyton, Zeno Miller, Alsey Miller, Howard Hook, Carl Carter, Margaret Miller and Guy Springgate.

SHREWSBURY--NEWTON

John Newton Marries Popular
Young Woman, Of Jolly Station--Home Wedding Sunday Afternoon.

Miss Eunice Shrewsbury and Mr. John Newton were united in marriage at the bride's home Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Those who attended from here were: Miss Susie Newton Mr. and Mrs. Warfield Collins.

The bride and groom will go to house-keeping immediately at their own home in Oak street. Mr. Newton is one of the best thought of young men at the L. H. & St. L. Shops in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Newton have many friends who wish them happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Brite were in Louisville Saturday.

Bread baking success is guaranteed if you use the Lewisport BEST Flour.

College Boys Beat Hardins- burg Juniors, 9 to 8.

Irvington, May 20.—(Special). —The best game played this season on the local diamond was played Saturday, and resulted in the defeat of the Hardinsburg Juniors.

The game started in favor of the Hardinsburg boys in the first two innings, but they met a stumbling block in the third when Herndon went into the box, and in seven innings they only succeeded in running in one score.

The Irvington boys were weakened because of the absence of Barr, who is considered the best player on the team.

The Hardinsburg boys were outplayed through the whole game, Irvington pulling off two fast double plays and playing better inside ball. From the third to the seventh inning both sides were blanked. In the fifth inning Hardinsburg had three men on bases with one down. Here is where Herndon showed himself famous by pitching himself out of a big hole by not letting the boys cross the rubber.

The score was tied in the seventh. Hardinsburg was blanked in their half of the eighth. Irvington broke the tie by scoring the winning run in their half on Hook's error.

The most brilliant playing by our boys was pulled off in the ninth inning when, after Victor Brown was safe at first with a nice little bingle over second base, Nat Shellman whipped the air and Brown was caught trying to take second on Shellman's third strike by an easy margin. Hardinsburg's last and only chance came when Willie Hoben came to the bat, but the best he could do was to die in Lyon's big mit as Shellman did.

Very few errors were made on either side. Irvington boys were credited with six stolen bases; Hardinsburg none. The feature of the game was the umpiring of Bennett. Struck out, by Hoben, 4; by Hook, 1; by Herndon, 10. Bases on balls, Hoben 2; Herndon 1.

The Hardinsburg boys were well pleased with the game. They said they got a square deal and want to play Irvington again. The next game between these boys will be played Saturday, June 3, on Hardinsburg's ground.
